Both the victim and the accused filed joint compromise memo stating that the petitioner and the victim got married and they have a male child. The victim is aged about 20 years and they are now living together as husband and wife and the victim has no objection to quash the charge sheet.

the Inspector of Police reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1056, has held as follows:

“In the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, we are of the considered view that the conviction and sentence of the appellant who is maternal uncle of the prosecutrix deserves to be set aside in view of the subsequent events that have been brought to the notice of this Court. This Court cannot shut its eyes to the ground reality and disturb the happy family life of the appellant and the prosecutrix. We have been informed about the custom in Tamilnadu of the marriage of a girl with the maternal uncle”.

5.The legal position expressed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another reported in (2012) 10 SCC 303 and Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Vs. State of Gujarat reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641 were taken into consideration.

6. In view of the above said judgments and the fact that the petitioner and the victim are living together as husband and wife along with their child after marriage and though charges are grave in nature,
