ORDER

While allowing a writ petition in WP(MD) No.9743 of 2024 on 23-04-2024, this Court issued the following direction:

“There shall be a direction to the second respondent herein to consider the petitioner's representation dated 12.02.2024 on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order”

2. Complaining the disobedience on the part of the respondent in implementing the said order, the present contempt petition is filed.

3. The respondent filed a counter affidavit, wherein it is stated that he implemented the order of this Court. However, he admitted that there is a delay in implementing the order of the Court.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in the considered opinion of this court, the order of the Court is not complied with in true letter and spirit as it is not implemented within the time stipulated by this Court and as such, the respondent is liable to be punished under the provisions of the Contempt of Court Act.

5. At this stage, the contemnor prayed the Court to pardon him. He also assured to be more careful in future in implementing the court's order and tendered his unconditional apology.

6. The contemnor also filed an undertaking affidavit stating that he will implement the orders without delay in future and tendered his unconditional apology. It is further stated that to prove his unconditional apology as bonafide, he is ready to do some social work as this Court deems fit.

7. He expressed his willingness to visit the premises of Rehoboth Home for mentally Challenged Women, No.22, Viswasa Nagar.

and to provide necessary assistance by providing required articles for utilization of the inmates of the said Home with his own money within a period of two weeks from the date of this order.

8. Considering the undertaking given by the contemnor, this Court opines that the unconditional apology is bonafide and accordingly inclined to close this Contempt Petition.

9. After visiting the said school, the contemnor shall file an affidavit before the Registrar (Judicial), Madurai Bench of Madras High Court, Madurai, with regard to the service he rendered within a week thereafter to enable the Registrar (Judicial) to keep the same in the record for perusal of the Court.

10. If contemnor fails to fulfill the undertaking, the Registry shall re-open the contempt petition and place before this Court.
