to grant an order of pre-arrest bail.

2. The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 324(4), 296(b) and 118(1) of BNS, in (*) (Crime No.34 of 2025) on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.01.2025 at about 11.00 p.m., due to previous dispute between the parties, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and her husband. At that time, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her husband in filthy language, attacked them with stick and threatened them with dire consequences and caused damages to the electricity box, door and bike belongs to the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.M.Karuppasamy Pandian, the learned counsel for the petitioners, submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prays to grant an order of pre-arrest bail to the petitioners.

5. Per contra, Mr.K.Sanjay Gandhi, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that there are totally 4 accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A1, A3 and A4. He further submits that A2 was arrested and released on bail. He further submits that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and there are no previous cases against them. He, however, prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. The petitioners have permanent residence and deep roots in the society. Hence, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same and also considering the fact that the injuries sustained by the defacto complainant and her husband are simple in nature and taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioners and also with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioners to reform themselves, this Court is inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
