3. Pending writ petition, the respondents have already considered the petitioner's representation dated 28.12.2023 and passed an order in Letter No.O.Mu.No.A1/17/2023 dated 22.01.2024, stating that the petitioner's claim cannot be considered since the petitioner is acting as hereditary trustee and by changing the revenue records, he is trying to take control of the temple Management and temple land. Hence, the same cannot be considered.

4. In view of the above, the present writ petition cannot be entertained since the official respondents have already considered the petitioner's representation and passed an order.

5. With the above said observations, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. The petitioner is at liberty to challenge the letter dated 22.01.2024 . There shall be no order as to costs.
