ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by G.K. ILANTHIRAIYAN,J.)

The petitioner is the father of the detenu viz., Murugan alias Siva alias Sivamurugan, son of Ramesh, aged about 19 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in No. 7/BCDFGISSSV/2025, dated 20.01.2025 holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this habeas corpus petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. The learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the order of detention was passed on 20.01.2025. However, the detention order was sent to the Government for approval only on 23.01.2025. In this regard, he relied on Section 3(3) of the Tamil Nadu Goondas Act, 14 of 1982. Accordingly, the detaining authority has to send the order of detention for approval to the government forthwith.

4. It is relevant to extract the Section 3(3) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982:-

“3(3) When any order is made under this section by an officer mentioned in sub-section (2), he shall forthwith report the fact to the State Government together with the grounds on which the order has been made and such other particulars as, in his opinion, have a bearing on the matter, and no such order shall remain in force for more than twelve days after the making thereof, unless, in the meantime, it has been approved by the State Government.”

5. It is seen from the records that in this case, the order of detention was passed on 20.01.2025 and the same was sent to the Government only on 23.01.2025. The date of detention order 20.01.2025 is falls on Monday, however, the detaining authority had taken three days time for sending the same to the Government for approval. On this sole ground alone the order of detention cannot be sustained and the same is liable to be quashed.

6. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in No.7/BCDFGISSSV/2025, dated 20.01.2025, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Murugan alias Siva alias Sivamurugan, son of Ramesh, aged about 19 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.

7. It is also made clear that the petitioner had murdered the person, who was proceeding to Court to recall the NBW. Further, it is a case of retaliation murder. Hence, if any bail application filed by the detenu, the trial Court is directed to dispose the bail application on its own merits and in accordance with law, without influencing any of the observation made by this Court.
