3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned counsel on both sides represented that during pendency of the case in C.C.No.61 of 2024, the matter has been amicably settled between the parties and to that effect, they have entered into a compromise and the same was filed before this Court. They would further submit that the first petitioner also lodged a complaint against the second respondent's family members, for which, a case in Crime No.179 of 2023 was registered and after investigation, final report was filed and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.315 of 2024, on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambasamudram. In that counter case also, the parties were reached compromise.

4. Today, the defacto-complainant and all the accused are present and the Court enquired about the terms of compromise. The defacto-complainant represented that they entered into a compromise. A compromise memo, dated 06.03.2025 signed by the parties and their respective counsels, is also filed before this Court.
