2. On 07.03.2025, this Court had admitted the writ petition and also granted an order of interim stay of the impugned order.

3. The learned counsel for the second respondent, Temple, has invited my attention to the impugned order, where parties were only directed to approach the competent civil Court and there have been no adverse findings warranting the stay of the said impugned order.

4. On going through the impugned order, I am satisfied with the contentions advanced by the learned counsel for the second respondent. In fact, even the writ petitioner, on going through the affidavit in support of the writ petition, I find has only apprehended interference with his possession and on that score alone has sought for interim stay of the operation of the impugned order. If at all the writ petitioner apprehends any interference with the physical possession, it shall be open to the petitioner to move an appropriate injunction application.

5. With such liberty, this miscellaneous petition is dismissed.
