he received photograph in their mobile phone by image depicting the person by name Karthick tying Thali round his daughter's neck. When this was informed to the second respondent-Police, they did not show any interest in tracing his daughter. Alleging that the second respondent Police had shown an lethargic attitude in acting upon his complaint and fear that whether his daughter is alive or not, the present Habeas Corpus Petition seeking issuance of a Writ of Habeas Corpus is filed.

4.After notice, the second respondent enquired and found that the daughter of the Petitioner has married one Karthick and presently living in Ernakulam.Their marriage is duly registered before the Registrar of Marriages, Guruvayoor Municipality.The detenue Kaviya has also filed an application to implead herself in the Habeas Corpus Petition stating that she fell in love with one Karthick and due to caste diffenence, her parents were not agreeable for the marriage and hence, she left the home and married the said Karthick at Guruvayoor and living with him.

5.Today, when the matter came up for consideration, the Petitioner, his wife and son are present. The daughter of the Petitioner Sri Kaviya appeared before this Court through video conferencing. The parents saw their daughter alive appearing in the screen and satisfied that their daughter is alive and gone out of the parental home on her own volition.

6. Considering the fact that the daughter of the Petitioner is a major and duly married with Karthick and their marriage is also duly registered and she is very much alive and appeared before this Court through video conferencing, this Court is of the view that the present Habeas Corpus Petition is not maintainable.

7. In view of the above, the Habeas Corpus Petition is dismissed. Criminal Miscellaneous Petition filed by the detenu to implead herself stands closed.
