3. The case of the prosecution is that, based on secret information, on 26.11.2024 at 09:00 hours, the defacto complainant, Sub-Inspector of Police, along with his team, proceeded to the Southwest end of Mariyappa Nagar, where they found a suspicious white Volkswagen Car bearing Registration No.AP-31-CA-5786 parked near the railway track. On noticing the police, A1 to A4 attempted to flee from the car. However, they were apprehended by the police. At that time, A1 voluntarily handed over a white gunny bag from the car, which was found to contain 20.300 kilograms of ganja. The contraband and the vehicle were seized from them. A1 later confessed that, on 16.11.2024 at 23:30 hours, Accused A5 to A9 had contacted A1 to A4 and A10 to A15 and conspired to procure ganja from Andhra Pradesh. Based on his confession, the other accused persons have been arrayed as A5 to A15. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.M.Ragul Kousik, the learned counsel for the petitioner, submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 26.11.2024. It is further submitted that the respondent-police, without conducting any proper preliminary enquiry, arrayed the petitioner as A2, and that he was not involved in the commission of the alleged offences. He further submitted that the petitioner has been recommended for knee replacement surgery by an Orthopedic Doctor, and considering the medical condition of the petitioner, this Court may be pleased to grant bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr.R.Meenakshi Sundaram, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-police, submitted that the respondent-police seized 20.300 kgs of ganja from A1 to A4. He further submitted that there are totally 15 accused persons in this case, and the petitioner has been arrayed as A2. He further submits that A1 confessed that on 25.11.2024 at 10:00 hours, the petitioner (A2) received a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- and travelled with A5 to A9 in the white Volkswagen car to Andhra Pradesh, procured the ganja, and returned to Cuddalore. Thereafter, A1 to A4 took custody of the contraband and were waiting for A10 to A15 when the police apprehended them. He further submits that the police seized 20.300 kgs of ganja from A1 to A4, including the petitioner (A2), on the spot, which constitutes a commercial quantity. Therefore, the petitioner has not satisfied the twin conditions stated under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. He further submitted that investigation has not been completed. Therefore, he vehemently opposes to grant bail to the petitioner, stating that if bail is granted, the petitioner may abscond and thereby delay the investigation. Accordingly, he prays to dismiss the petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. On perusal of the records, it is revealed that the respondent- police arrested A1 to A4, including the petitioner (A2), along with the contraband. Subsequently, A1 confessed that on 16.11.2024 at 23:30 hours, A5 to A9 had contacted the petitioner (A2), A1, A3, A4, and A10 to A15, and all of them conspired to procure ganja from Andhra Pradesh. Further, the investigation in the case is still pending. The involvement of the petitioner in this case can be ascertained only after the completion of the investigation. The quantity of contraband seized from A1 to A4, including the petitioner (A2), in this case is of a commercial quantity. In view of the above facts and circumstances of the case, and also considering the rigours of Section 37 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
