Collector, District Revenue Officer as well as the Tahsildar as party defendants in the said suit. The relief sought for in the said suit is only a permanent injunction to restrain the defendants namely the revenue officials from interfering with the peaceful possession of the petitioner. Pending the said suit, the petitioner has approached this Court impleading the second respondent, Assistant Director of Agriculture Department, Uthamapalayam, contending that the second respondent is now disturbing the possession of the petitioner. The petitioner has also given a representation dated 21.02.2025 to the District Collector, District Revenue Officer, as well as the Tahsildar.

4. When the petitioner has already filed a suit against these revenue officials including the District Collector, it would be appropriate for the petitioner even to seek disposal of his representation regarding the interference by the second respondent in this regard. The petitioner is always at liberty to implead the second respondent in the pending suit and seek appropriate relief.
