ORDER

The conditional interim order passed by the respondent dated 22.09.2021 is under challenge in this writ petition.

2.This writ petition has been filed by the Management as against the conditional order passed by the appellate tribunal while granting an interim order. This Court, in WP.(MD)No.4869 of 2022 dated 17.10.2024, has already passed an order deciding this issue that the appellate authority is entitled to impose any condition while entertaining the application for stay. Moreover, in this case, it is reported that the entire amount pursuant to the damages under Section 14B of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 [hereinafter referred as 'the Act'] together with interest was already collected from the petitioner. However, the same is subject to the proceedings which is now pending with the appellate Tribunal. The learned counsel on either side submits that in view of the pendency of this writ petition, the Tribunal has also not decided the issue so far.

3.Since the issue has already decided by this Court in WP. (MD)No.4869 of 2022 dated 17.10.2024 and also considering the fact that the amount was already recovered under Section 8F of the Act, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to workout their remedy before the appellate Tribunal. The appellate Tribunal shall also conclude the appeal in EPFA.No. 85/2021, as expeditiously as possible, preferably, within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
