CRL OP (MD) No.5342 of 2025

ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed by the petitioner on 19.03.2025 under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, praying to grant bail.

2. The petitioner/Accused No.8 was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.03.2024 for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w. 20(b)(ii)(C) and 25 of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, in Crime No.1058 of 2023 on the file of the respondent-police. After investigation, charge sheet has been filed and the same was taken on file by the learned Additional District Judge, Special Court of EC and NDPS Act cases, Pudukkottai in C.C.No.76 of 2024.

3. The case of the prosecution is that, on receiving secret information, on 17.12.2023, at about 17:30 hours, the respondent-police conducted a vehicle check-up near Singamuthur Ayyanar Temple. At that time, they found that A1 was in possession of 60 kgs of ganja in an auto bearing registration No.TN-55-BH-7284. Based on the statement given by A1, the police proceeded to the house of A2, where they found that A2 was in possession of 40 kgs of ganja, which was intended for export to Sri Lanka. During the investigation, it was revealed that the accused persons, including the petitioner (A8), had purchased 100 kgs of ganja from Andhra Pradesh and attempted to transport it in several vehicles for export to Sri Lanka.

4. Mr.Na.Manimaran, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that this is the 2nd bail application and the earlier petition filed by the petitioner in Crl.O.P (MD) No.7058 of 2024 was dismissed by this Court on 25.06.2024. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, that she has not committed the offence as alleged by the prosecution, and that she has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that only based on the confession of co-accused, the petitioner herein has been arrayed as A8 and that no contraband was recovered from her. He further submits that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 28.03.2024 i.e. for more than 380 days and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He therefore prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr.R.Meenakshi Sundaram, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-police, submits that the accused persons were transporting ganja in large quantities to various places, including Sri Lanka. He further submits that the petitioner (A8) was assisting Accused No.1 in the loading and shifting of the contraband. He further submits that the petitioner herein is the owner of the offending vehicle and that he has three previous cases, which are similar in nature. He further submits that Accused No.5 still absconding, who is none other than the brother of the petitioner, and that A6 and A7 have been granted pre-arrest bail by this Court on 29.02.2024 and 27.02.2024 respectively, and A4 has been granted bail by this Court on 14.03.2025. However, he further submits that if bail is granted to the petitioner, she may commit a similar offence and abscond and delay the trial.

Accordingly, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the CD file.

7. The alleged occurrence took place on 17.12.2023, and the respondent-police seized 60 kgs of ganja from A1 and 40 kgs of ganja from A2. Based on the confession of A1, the petitioner herein was arrayed as A9. Admittedly, no contraband was recovered from the petitioner. The only overt act attributed to the petitioner is that she is the owner of the motorcycle and provided her motorcycle for selling the contraband. Except for this act, there is no material on record connecting the petitioner with the crime. The submission of the learned Additional Public Prosecutor is that the CDR details and other materials collected by the investigating agency show that the petitioner has committed the offence. However, merely because CDR details are available, these materials are not sufficient to conclude that the petitioner has committed the offence. It is to be noted that the above view is recorded solely for the purpose of deciding the bail petition. This view, in no way, would cause any prejudice to the rights of the prosecution in establishing the case during the trial. In view of the above, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not necessary in this case. Considering the same and also considering the fact that the petitioner is a woman and the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner and with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioner to reform herself, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to certain conditions. Accordingly, bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) along with two sureties each for a like sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the learned Additional District Judge for EC and NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai;

(ii) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the Application for Suretyship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Additional District Judge for EC and NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai shall obtain a copy of any one of identity proofs to ensure their identity;

(iii) The petitioner shall furnish her residential address and mobile number to the learned Additional District Judge for EC and NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai;

(iv) The petitioner shall appear and sign before the learned Additional District Judge for EC and NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai on all working days at 10.30 am until further orders;

(vii) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence; and
