2. When the matter is taken up for consideration, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is willing to pay the entire amount due under the impugned proceedings in 24 equal monthly installments.

3. Having taken note of the same, learned counsel appearing for the first respondent objected for grant of 24 installments for payment of the amount due under the impugned proceedings.

4. Having taken into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the view that it is a fit case in order to ensure that the amount due under the impugned proceedings is paid by the petitioner it would be appropriate to grant reasonable installments.

5. In the light of the above and especially taking into consideration the undertaking given by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner will positively pay the entire due in installments, this writ petition is disposed of directing the petitioner to pay an amount of Rs.3,00,000/- (Rupees three laksh only) by 27.03.2025 and thereafter, pay the remaining amount of
