3. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's native village is Karungulam, and he is now residing in Chennai. On 22.02.2025, the defacto complainant was informed that a theft had occurred in one Nachiyappan's house in Karungulam. Hence, the defacto complainant contacted one Pandi, who had the keys to his house, in order to check his house. After checking the house, the said Pandi informed the defacto complainant that the lock of the defacto complainant's house had also been broken. Knowing this, the defacto complainant returned to Karungulam and came to know that gold jewels, silver articles, and cash amounting to Rs.20,000/- were stolen. Hence the case.

4. Mr.J.Vishnu, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the properties were recovered from A1 and A2. He further submits that the petitioner has two previous cases, one of which is similar in nature. He further submits that if bail is granted to the petitioner, he may commit a similar type of offence. Accordingly, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. The petitioner was arrested on 26.02.2025 and has been in judicial custody since then. The petitioner has two previous cases, one of which is similar in nature. In view of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and the entire properties were recovered from the co-accused persons/ A1 and A2, this Court is of the opinion that further custody of the petitioner is not necessary in this case. Considering the same, and also considering the period of incarceration, and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to certain conditions. Accordingly, bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
