ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 336(3) and 345(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.168 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 08.03.2025, at about 9.00 a.m., the de-facto complainant, who was on regular patrol, noticed the petitioner's car bearing registration No.TN-45-CC-0027 (Innova Crysta GX), which actually belongs to an Ather 450X electric two-wheeler. Upon enquiring with the petitioner, it was found that the said number plate had not yet been duly registered. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this is the second anticipatory bail application filed before this Court. In fact, the petitioner had purchased the said car in the year 2018 by availing a loan. Subsequently, he applied for the allotment of a registration number through a broker, namely Vincent. The said broker issued a certificate on 26.09.2019 stating that registration No.TN-45-CC-0027 had been allotted to the petitioner's car, and he collected the amount without issuing any challan. Believing his statement, the petitioner continued to use the car bearing the said number. Thereafter, the petitioner came to know that his vehicle had not been registered, allegedly due to non-payment, and that the said registration number had been allotted to another vehicle. The petitioner had no intention to cheat or to use any forged number plate. He submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the petitioner is the sole accused in this case. The petitioner has been using a registration number in his car that actually belongs to an electric two-wheeler. He further submitted that the petitioner's vehicle has already been seized. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner's vehicle has already been seized, and that as the date of occurrence is 08.03.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.
