2. The petitioner / Accused No.8 was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.02.2024 for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 8(c) and 20 (b)(ii)(C) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 in Crime No.582 of 2023 on the file of the respondent-police. After the investigation, the charge sheet has been filed and the same was taken on file by the learned I Additional Special Court for Trial of NDPS Act Cases, Madurai in C.C.No.170 of 2024.

3. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information, on 29.12.2023 at about 05:30 hours, when the Sub Inspector of Police, Tenkasi Police Station, along with his team, was on patrol duty near Ayyapuram Junction, they found that A1 to A5 were in possession of 22 kgs of ganja in a four-wheeler bearing Registration No.TN-96-F-7778. The police arrested A1 to A5 and seized the vehicle and ganja. Hence, the case. There are totally 11 accused persons in this case. Based on the confession of co-accused persons, the petitioner has been arrayed as Accused No.8.

4. Mr.J.William Christopher, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submitted that the petitioner herein was not present at the scene of occurrence. He further submitted that only based on the confession of co-accused persons, he has been falsely roped in this case and he has no knowledge/idea about the other accused persons. He further submits that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 25.02.2024 and that this Court has already granted bail to Accused Nos.6 and 7 in Crl.O.P.(MD).Nos.22372 of 2024 and 2155 of 2025 on 21.01.2025 and 26.02.2025 respectively. He therefore prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr.R.Meenakshi Sundaram, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-police, submitted that the case was registered on 29.12.2023, and the charge sheet was filed on 20.06.2024 and taken on file in C.C. No.170 of 2024. He further submitted that this is a case of smuggling of Narcotic Drugs. Additional documents were filed before the Trial Court on 13.02.2025 in Crl.M.P. No. 545 of 2025 (E-Filing No.TNMD050005532025), including the Call Detail Records (CDRs) of all eleven accused persons along with the statement of the Nodal Officer. At this juncture, if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, there is every likelihood of his absconding. Moreover, releasing the petitioner on bail may lead to tampering of evidence and may also stall the progress of the trial. He further submitted that the petitioner was apprehended based on credible evidence, including the statement of A1 and corroborative CDR data that establishes his involvement. He further submitted that there are four previous cases registered against the petitioner, of which three involve offences under the Indian Penal Code, and one pertains to the SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act; however, no case has been registered under the NDPS Act. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner, stating that if bail is granted, the petitioner may abscond and thereby delay the trial proceedings. Accordingly, he prayed to dismiss the petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. Admittedly, no contraband was seized from the petitioner. The petitioner was arrayed as an accused based on the confession allegedly given by the co-accused persons. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.02.2024. The petitioner has permanent residence and therefore, there is less possibility of absconding. This Court has already granted bail to Accused No.6 and 7 in Crl.O.P.(MD).Nos.22372 of 2024 and 2155 of 2025 on 21.01.2025 and 26.02.2025 respectively. No contraband was seized / recovered from the petitioner. Further materials available on record would not establish the involvement of the petitioner with the crime. Hence, this Court is of the view that the petitioner has wriggled out of the rigors of Section 37 of NDPS Act. To be noted, the aforesaid view is recorded only for the limited purpose of deciding this bail application alone and the same would not cause prejudice to the prosecution to establish its case during trial. Considering the same and also considering the period of incarceration and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is
