2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners have involved in a criminal conspiracy in order to create forged sale deeds. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not involve in any of the offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners are innocents and they are falsely implicated in this case. The petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that A2, A3, A7, A8 and A11 and A14 were enlarged on bail. He therefore prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioners are the main accused in this case and only at their instance, the documents were forged and hence, custodial interrogation is necessary in this case. Therefore, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition. He would further submit that it is admitted fact that the subsequent purchaser, one Seenivasan filed a civil suit in OS No.112 of 2024 on the file of the District Munsif Court, Madurai, and the same is pending.

5. A perusal of the alteration report filed by the respondent police dated 23.12.2024 shows that the petitioners are alleged to have involved in a criminal conspiracy in order to create such forged sale deed. The allegation levelled against
