The petitioners/Accused Nos.1 & 2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 120B, 419, 420, 465, 468 and 471 I.P.C in Cr.No.4 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has properties in Survey No.5/7 to an extent of 2 acres and 19 cents; in S.No.6/1B to an extent of 3 acres 88 cents; and S.No.10/2 to an extent of 75 cents situated at Pillayarkulam Village, Thiruchuli Taluk, Virudhunagar District. The petitioners along with others had created a forged general power of attorney as executed by the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not create any general power of attorney by means of forgery dated 02.08.2006 with respect to the above mentioned survey numbers. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned counsel appearing for the intervener would submit that the above mentioned properties are ancestral properties of the defacto complainant. The petitioner enjoying the property by paying necessary tax to the revenue department.

CRL OP(MD)No.5573 of 2025

By taking advantage of the absence of the petitioner, the first accused has created a WEB COPY forged General Power of Attorney and registered on the file of Sub Registrar, Thiruppuvanam and forged the signature of the defacto complaint as if he has executed the same. Hence, he opposes for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioners have colluded together and created a forged general power of attorney. The documents have been sent for verification where it was found to be a forged document. Accused Nos.4 and 5 were arrested and released on bail. Accused No.6 got anticipatory bail.

6.Considering the fact that Accused Nos.4 and 5 were arrested and enlarged on bail and Accused No.6 was also granted anticipatory bail before the Court below and the documents have been sent for forensic department and obtained a report and the allegations levelled as against the petitioners are borne out by the records, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate No.II,

CRL OP(MD)No.5573 of 2025

Sivagangai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
