This Criminal Original Petition has been filed by the petitioners on 02.04.2025 under Section 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, praying to grant pre-arrest bail.

2. The petitioners / Accused Nos.1 to 3 apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent-Police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.51 of 2025, on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, on 17.03.2025 at about 12.10 a.m., the petitioners herein forcefully entered into the defacto complainant's house and shouted at him to leave the house, and during the confrontation, Accused Nos.1 and 2 grabbed the defacto complainant's neck and attempted to push him out and Accused No.3 took a mixer from the house and hit him on the head. Further, the petitioners abused him in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

4. Mr.S.Shanmugasundaram, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, submits that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays for granting pre-arrest bail to the petitioners.

5. Per contra, Mr.K.Sanjai Gandhi, learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-Police submits that the defacto complainant is none other than the husband of the first petitioner. He further submits that petitioner Nos.2 and 3 are the parents of the first petitioner. He further submits that due to wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners herein attacked the defacto complainant with mixie. He further submits that the defacto complainant has been admitted in the hospital on 18.03.2025 and discharged on 22.03.2025. He further submits that there is no previous case against the first petitioner; there is one previous case against the second petitioner and there is one previous case against the third petitioner. He further submits that if pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioners, he may cause threat to the defacto complainant and the witnesses. Hence, he strongly opposes to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioners.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the FIR.

7. The petitioners have permanent residence and deep roots in the society, and hence, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same, and also considering the relationship between the parties, and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioners to reform themselves, this Court is inclined to grant
