3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondents would submit that earlier the petitioner lodged a complaint and the same was closed after enquiry. Again the petitioner sent a complaint dated 25.03.2025 and the same was also closed on 08.04.2025 after enquiry. Therefore, the petitioner's complaints were already considered and the same were closed. Therefore, nothing survives for further adjudication in this case.

4. Considering the prayer sought for in the petition, this Court even without issuing notice to the respondents no.3 to 11 inclined to pass orders in this petition.

5. According to the petitioner, he lodged a complaint against the private respondents and the same has not been considered. The 2nd respondent police has admitted the receipt of the complaint and the same was closed after enquiry. Considering the prayer sought for in the petition and the petitioner's complaint was already considered and closed, it is for
