3. According to the learned counsel appearing for the revision petitioner, challenging the above said award passed in A.R.C.No.47 of 2021, he has already filed an appeal before the Deputy Secretary to Government and enquiry was initially fixed on 26.03.2025 and it was adjourned to 17.04.2025 for filing counter by the first respondent/Chit funds Private Limited Company. In view of the pendency of the appeal proceedings, the present Civil Revision Petition has been filed seeking to strike off E.P.No.203 of 2022.

4. Pendency of an appeal would not be a ground to strike off E.P.No. 203 of 2022. Considering the fact that the first respondent herein has also entered appearance in the appeal proceedings, the Executing Court is directed to keep in abeyance the execution proceedings till 31.07.2025. In case, if the petitioner is not able to get an interim order or the appeal is not disposed by 31.07.2025, the executing Court is at liberty to proceed with in accordance with law after 31.07.2025.
