3. The case of the prosecution is that on 02.04.2025, at about 01.30 p.m., based on the secret information, the respondent-police conducted a search near Santhaipettai to prohibit illegal transporting and selling of banned tobacco products. At that time, the respondent-Police found that Accused Nos.1 and 2 were transporting 164 packets of Hans, each containing 300 gms and 55 packets of Cool lip each containing 108 gms in an Electric Bike. On seeing the Police, Accused Nos.1 and 2 tried to escape from the spot. However, the respondent-Police surrounded the accused persons and arrested both of them. The respondent-Police thereafter seized the banned tobacco products and the Electric bike from them. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.D.Rameshkumar, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. 5. Per contra, Mr.K.Sanjai Gandhi, learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that the petitioner was found in possession of 55 kgs of banned tobacco products. He further submits that that the petitioner is running a grocery shop. He further submits that there are four previous cases against the petitioner, which are similar in nature, and therefore, if bail is granted to the petitioner, he may commit similar offence and endanger the health of the general public. Therefore, he vehemently opposes to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. In view of the offences allegedly committed by the petitioner and taking note of the fact that the banned tobacco products and the Electric Bike have been seized by the respondent-police, this Court is of the opinion that further custody of the petitioner is not necessary for the Investigation Agency in this case. Further, the petitioner has permanent residence. Therefore, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same, and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant an order of bail to the petitioner, however, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) along with two sureties each for a like sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate I,
