This Criminal Original Petition has been filed by the petitioner on 15.04.2025 under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023 praying to grant bail.

2. The petitioner/A4 was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 14.03.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 309(4), 311 and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023, in Crime No.316 of 2025 on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that on 13.03.2025, at about 07:00 a.m., when the defacto complainant and two others were standing and talking near Madhesh Departmental Store on Kamarajar 4th Street at Chinna Chokkikulam, the petitioner and the other accused persons waylaid them and demanded money to consume alcohol. When the defacto complainant refused, they abused him in filthy language, threatened him, robbed Rs.900/- from him at knife point, criminally intimidated him, and fled from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the complaint.

4. Mr.K.Palmurugan, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner has nothing to do with the alleged offence and that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He however submits that he is ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner has been in incarceration since 14.03.2025. Therefore, he prays for granting bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr.K.Sanjai Gandhi, learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-Police, submits that the petitioner has three previous cases. He further submits that the defacto complainant has not sustained any injuries. He however submits that if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he will cause threat to the defacto complainant and may also commit similar offences. Hence, he vehemently opposes to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard on both sides and perused the records.

7. The petitioner was arrested and has been in judicial custody since 14.03.2025. In view of the offences allegedly committed by the petitioner and taking note of the fact that the defacto complainant has not sustained any injury, this Court is of the opinion that further custody of the petitioner is not necessary for the Investigation Agency in this case. Further, the petitioner has permanent residence, and therefore, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant an order of bail to the petitioner, however, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
