Crl.R.C(MD)No.780 of 2025

ORDER

Heard Mr.G.B.Kaveri Mani, learned Counsel for Mr.C.M.Arumugam, learned Counsel for the Revision Petitioners and Mr.RM.Arun Swaminathan, learned Counsel for the Respondent.

2. This Criminal Revision Petition has been filed, to set aside the order dated 21.11.2024 passed in M.C.No.37 of 2024 by the Family Court, Sivagangai, for enhancing the quantum of maintenance amount, as prayed for before the learned Trial Court.

3. When the matter was taken up on 13.11.2025, this Court passed the following order:

“Heard C.M.Arumugam, learned Counsel for the Revision Petitioners and Mr.RM.Arun Swaminathan, learned Counsel for the Respondent and this Court has taken the assistance of Mr.M.Ravi, learned Additional Public Prosecutor and Mr.A.S.Abul Kalam Azad, learned Government Advocate.

2. This Criminal Revision Petition has been filed, to set aside the order dated 21.11.2024 passed in M.C.No. 37 of 2024 by the Family Court, Sivagangai, for enhancing the quantum of maintenance amount, as prayed for before the learned Trial Court.

3. Mr.C.M.Arumugam, learned counsel for the Revision Petitioners, submits that the 1st Revision Petitioner and the Respondent are wife and husband. The 2nd Revision Petitioner is their daughter, who is now 6 years old. Due to differences of opinion, they are living separately, and the 1st Revision Petitioner has filed a petition in M.C.No.37 of 2024 under Section 125 of Cr.P.C. before the Family Court, Sivagangai, seeking maintenance. The Family Court, vide order dated 21.11.2024, awarded Rs.17,500/- as monthly maintenance to the 1st Revision Petitioner/wife and Rs.12,000/- to the 2nd Revision Petitioner/daughter.

4. The learned Counsel for the Revision Petitioners further submits that the Trial Judge has not considered the surrounding circumstances, the educational career of the daughter of the 1st Revision Petitioner, their prospective welfare, or the accommodation expenses. The amount awarded is totally disproportionate to the admitted monthly income of the Respondent and also to the actual monthly income. Hence, this Criminal Revision Petition has been filed seeking enhancement of the amount awarded by the Trial Court.

5. When the matter was taken up on 11.11.2025, at the request of the learned Counsel for both parties, this Court directed both parties, along with their child, to appear in person before this Court and adjourned the case to 13.11.2025, so that an effort could be made to settle the matter between the parties before this Court, as the dispute is purely matrimonial in nature, which has led to the present litigation.

6. Today, when the matter is being taken up, in compliance with the order dated 11.11.2025 passed by this Court in the present Revision Petition, the 1st Revision Petitioner viz., L.Annapoorani, and the Respondent, viz., Mani, along with their child the 2nd Revision Petitioner viz., Sahasra, are present before this Court today, along with their respective counsels.

7. Despite certain facts having come to light from the side of the Revision Petitioners as well as the Respondent, both counsel have given some suggestions for settlement of the dispute between the parties, and they are ready for a one-time settlement.

8. Mr.C.M.Arumugam, learned Counsel for the Revision Petitioners, and Mr.RM.Arun Swaminathan, learned Counsel for the Respondent, submit that the 1st Revision Petitioner, viz., L.Annapoorani, and the Respondent, viz., Mani, have entered into a Terms of Agreement and submit that they are not ready to live together and both parties are ready to settle their dispute amicably in terms of the agreement. In this regard, the terms of the agreement dated 13.11.2025 is produced before this Court and the same is taken on record. The Terms of Agreement dated 13.11.2025 is reproduced hereunder:
