to withdraw the case in H.M.O.P.No.668 of 2024 pending on the file of the Family Court, Karur and to transfer the same to the Sub Court, Palani, (Camp Court at Kodaikanal).

2. The petitioner is the wife and the respondent is the husband. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 07.11.2024 as per the Hindu Rites and Customs at G.R.Mahal, Karur.

3. Due to some matrimonial discord, the parties have separated. Therefore, the respondent/husband initiated the proceeding in H.M.O.P.No. 668 of 2024, on the file of the Family Court, Karur, seeking divorce.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/wife submits that his client is living in Kodaikanal Town and Taluk, Dindigul District and she was taken care of by her parents. The distance between the petitioner's residence to Karur, is around 172 Kms, and being a lady, she finds it difficult to travel such a long distance for attending every Court hearing. Hence, she seeks transfer of proceeding in H.M.O.P.No.668 of 2024 from the file of the Family Court, Karur, to the file of the Subordinate Court, Palani, Camp at Kodaikanal.

5. Even though notice was sent to the respondent, it was returned as 'unclaimed'. Hence, it was deemed to be served and his name was also printed in the cause list.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the materials available on records.

7. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has dealt with the position generally, that it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked into while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer; the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.", the bench observed."

8. It is also well settled proposition of law that whenever a transfer petition is filed in matrimonial disputes, the convenience of the wife should be predominantly looked into, and the wife's convenience shall be given preference.

9. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and also taking into account of the inconvenience expressed by the petitioner in attending every court hearing, by travelling four hours journey to reach the Family Court, Karur, situated 172 kms away from her Domicile, namely, Kodaikanal Town, incurring huge expense, this court inclines to allow the
