2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that one Pandiyarajan, Sub Registrar of Thirumangalam, has created forged documents in favour of the private respondents with the help of a Document Writer and therefore, the petitioner has lodged a complaint to the Vigilance and Anti-Corruption Department, but, the same has not been attended. The learned counsel further submits that the said Sub Registrar is a corrupt person and he was trapped along with another Document Writer and a criminal case has been registered in Crime No.3 of 2025 for the offence under Section 7(a) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that the complaint of the petitioner was referred to the Inspector General of Registration, who, in turn, appointed an Enquiry Officer to look into this issue and depending upon the recommendations of the concerned Department, they would take further course of action.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents 4 to 6 also submits that the Inspector General of Registration has appointed the District Registrar, Madurai (South), as Enquiry Officer and depending on the outcome of the enquiry, they would recommend for further course of action, if any required.

5. Considering the said submissions, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Inspector General of Registration, Chennai, after concluding the enquiry, to take appropriate action not only departmentally and also criminally through the Vigilance and Anti-Corruption Department, if it is required, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
