to grant an order of pre-arrest bail.

2. The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent-police for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.228 of 2025 on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that there was already an existing dispute between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant regarding ancestral property as well as a water dispute. On 08.04.2025 at about 07:00 A.M., when the de-facto complainant went to his farming land, the accused persons waylaid him, scolded him using filthy language, attacked him with hands, legs, and wooden logs, and threatened him with dire consequences. As a result of the assault, the de-facto complainant sustained injuries and was admitted to the Government Hospital at Kulithalai for treatment. Hence, the present case has been registered.

4. Mr.V.Karuna, the learned counsel for the petitioners, submits that the petitioners are innocent persons, they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. He however submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prays to grant an order of pre-arrest bail to the petitioners.

5. Per contra, Mr.K.Sanjai Gandhi, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A1 and A3. He further submits that there are no previous cases against the petitioners. He further submits that the injured person was admitted to the hospital on 08.04.2025 and discharged on 17.04.2025. He further contends that if the petitioners are released on pre-arrest bail, they will again cause threat to the defacto complainant. He therefore prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. The petitioners have permanent residence and deep roots in the society. Hence, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same and also considering the nature of the offence alleged against the petitioners and taking note of the fact that the injured was discharged from hospital and with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioners to reform themselves, this Court is inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
