CRL OP(MD), No.7118 of 2025

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 316(2), 318(3), 318(4), 338, 339, 61(2) and 351(2) of BNS Act, in Crime No.7 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant approached A1 for getting a loan for running his business. A1 assured the defacto complainant that he will make necessary arrangements for the loan. For this purpose, A1 was insisting for the execution of a Memorandum of Understanding in favour of the company. A1 also insisted that the defacto complainant must pay 1% out of the total loan amount which works out to Rs.50 lakhs. This amount was handed over by the defacto complainant to A1. Subsequently, it came to light that all the accused persons joined together and had cheated the defacto complainant. There are totally 12 accused persons in this case (initially 7 accused persons and subsequently 5 accused persons were added). The petitioner has been arrayed as A12.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that co-accused has already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.OP(MD).No. 1220 of 2025 dated 30.01.2025. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, she vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and if the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- to the credit of crime number, the same would suffice to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with other conditions.
