1 to 3 submitted that, though the petitioner has sent a representation to the third respondent, the fourth respondent is the competent authority to address the issue of the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner may be permitted to submit a fresh representation to the fourth respondent, detailing the issues raised in the present writ petition. Upon receipt of such representation, the fourth respondent will pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.

4. In view of the aforesaid submissions, this Court directs the petitioner to submit a fresh representation to the fourth respondent, setting out all the grounds raised in this writ petition, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Upon receipt of the said representation, the fourth respondent shall consider it and pass appropriate orders on merits and in accordance with law, within a further period of four weeks, after affording a fair hearing to the petitioner and to any other aggrieved persons, if any. It is also made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the matter and it is open to the fourth respondent to consider the same on merits and in accordance with law.
