2. The petitioner is the Correspondent of the Women's Christian College which is a minority diocese institution. In the said college, one post of Assistant Professor (English) fell vacant due to the retirement of then incumbent Dr.Asha Madan on 31.05.2019. approval from the affiliated university. The University gave qualification approval for her appointment vide proceedings dated 15.03.2023. Thereafter, the college submitted a proposal to the third respondent seeking for approval of appointment of the said Assistant Professor with effect from 09.10.2019. The third respondent vide proceedings dated 12.04.2023, granted approval for appointment of the said Assistant Professor with effect from 09.10.2019. But salary was disbursed only from the month of September, 2023 and not from the date of appointment. The arrears of salary from 09.10.2019 to 31.08.2023 is not disbursed till date. The petitioner has submitted several representations to the third respondent for disbursement of arrears of salary. But the representations dated 16.05.2024 and further 19.12.2024 were not considered. Aggrieved by the inaction of the respondents and to consider the request of the petitioner, the present writ petition is filed.

3. On careful perusal of the materials available on record, it appears that the third respondent granted approval order dated 12.04.2023 wherein the approval was granted with effect from 09.10.2019, that is the date of the appointment of the said Assistant Professor. As and when approval is granted with effect from 09.10.2019, the action of the third respondent in disbursing the salary only from the month of September, 2023 is illegal, unjust and in violation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India. Further the action of the third respondent in not considering the representations dated 16.05.2024 and 19.12.2024 of the petitioner is unjust.

4. For the reasons stated above, this writ petition is allowed with a direction to the third respondent to disburse those arrears of salary admissible to Dr.V.Amutha in the post of Assistant Professor (English), for the period from 09.10.2019 to 31.08.2023 with all attendant consequential benefits within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. There shall be no order as to costs.
