Registrar Joint-I Office, Dindigul. The petitioner has also stated that the petitioner is in possession and enjoyment of the property and in order to ascertain the correct boundaries, the petitioner has made an application for survey and paid necessary fees on 24.03.2025. The petitioner apprehends that the school owning the adjoining plots, has trespassed into the petitioner's plot and hence, the survey has been sought for.

4. The learned Government Advocate would submit that the respondents are ready to proceed with the survey subject to the petitioner producing all relevant documents regarding the subject property and after issuing notice to the adjoining plot owners.

5. Considering the above, this writ petition is disposed of, directing the respondents 1 and 2 to conduct survey, after giving notices to the petitioner and the adjoining plot owners and also to the jurisdictional police officials, namely the 4th respondent in the event of police protection being required by the 1st respondent. The survey shall be conducted in the presence of the neighbouring plot owners and the petitioner at her cost with liberty to videograph the survey,
