3. The petitioner is a student studying B.Com., in the second respondent College. He has been implicated in a case registered under the NDPS Act, in Crime No.119 of 2025 and hence, the petitioner was not permitted to attend the classes and was issued with the suspension order. Aggrieved over the same, the petitioner has come forward with the present Writ Petition.

It is pertinent to note that the petitioner is not a habitual offender and the aforesaid criminal case alone was pending against him.

him to pursue his studies without any hindrance. This Court opines that there is no impediment for the authorities concerned to proceed with the trial proceedings in the said case against the petitioner and it is for the second respondent college to take further action subject to the outcome of the criminal case.
