3.The learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that necessary online application has already been made on 20.03.2025 and he has also produced relevant records to substantiate the same.

4.In view of the limited relief sought for by the petitioner, the fifth respondent is directed to fix a date for survey and issue advance intimation to the petitioner, the fourth respondent as well as the sixth respondent. The fourth respondent shall ensure availability of sufficient police personnels on the date of survey to prevent any breach of law and order situation. The objections of the sixth respondent, if any, shall be considered and disposed of one way or the other before a decision is taken regarding survey. In the event of the objections of the sixth respondent being overruled, then the survey can be proceeded with to dispose of the petitioner's application. In the event of the objections of the sixth respondent touching issues of title, which has not been decided by any competent civil Court, then survey may be refused and the parties may be relegated to the competent civil Court. The fifth respondent shall
