This Criminal Original Petition has been filed by the petitioner on 25.04.2025 under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, praying to grant an order of pre-arrest bail.

2. The petitioner / accused No.2 apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent-police for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 IPC in Crime No.7 of 2025 on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused person herein has contacted the defacto complainant and informed that they are running a retail shop in the name of Guru Traders and asked them to supply 21,829 Paddy bags worth about Rs.2,83,77,700/- and assured to pay the amount at the time of delivery. The defacto complainant has also sent the same, but the petitioner and other accused person paid only a sum of Rs.1,66,77,700/- and the balance amount did not paid to the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.C.Venkatesh, the learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and he has not committed any offence as alleged by

5. Per contra, Mr.R.Meenakshi Sundaram, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-police, submits that there was a business transactions between the parties and the petitioner has to pay the balance amount of Rupees One Crore and Seventeen Lakhs. He further submits that the investigation of the case is still pending and therefore, at this stage, if pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioner, he may cause threat to the defacto complainant and witnesses and commit the similar offence. Accordingly, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. On perusal of records, it is seen that there was a business transaction held between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and it appears that the petitioner is liable to pay some money to the defacto complainant. It is learnt that the complainant has not filed civil suit for recovery of money so far. This Court is of the prima facie view that the dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant is civil in nature. Hence, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary in this case. To be noted that above view is recorded only to decide this bail application alone. The aforesaid view of this Court will not cause prejudice to the prosecution to establish its case during trial. The petitioner has permanent residence and deep roots in the society. Therefore, there is less possibility for absconding. Considering the same, and also considering the nature of offences allegedly committed by the petitioner and with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant an order of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

(i) The petitioner shall be released on bail in the event of his arrest or in the event of his surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sivagangai, within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) along with two sureties each for a like sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sivagangai.
