ORDER

Heard both sides.

2. The petitioner's allegation is that the sixth respondent is wantonly blocking the petition-mentioned irrigation channel. Denying the said allegation, the sixth respondent undertakes before us through his counsel that he will not at any point of time block the free flow of water through the petition-mentioned channel.

3. We record the said undertaking. If the undertaking is breached by the sixth respondent, it is duty of the revenue officials to clear the same. When it is brought to their notice either by the petitioner or anybody else that the sixth respondent has caused any such block, it will be removed at his cost. This writ petition stands allowed on these terms. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
