of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner vehicle was seized by the respondent police for illegally transmission of river sand. On seeing the police officials, the petitioner escaped from the spot. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not involved in any of the offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is an innocent and he is falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. He therefore prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner illegally transported the river sand without having any valid license or permit. There is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations and considering the fact that there is no previous case as against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
