This Criminal Original Petition has been filed by the petitioner on 05.05.2025 under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, praying to grant bail.

2. The petitioner / Accused No.2 was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.04.2025 for the offences punishable under Section 310(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.115 of 2025 on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant was regularly making conversation with a woman through the GR App. On 21.04.2025, when the defacto complainant went to meet the woman, six accused persons, who were hiding at the location, surrounded him. They transferred Rs.700/- from the mobile phone of the defacto complainant to their phone via G-Pay, abused him in filthy language, slapped him, recorded the incident on video, and demanded a sum of Rs.25,000/-. They also threatened to upload the video to the internet if he failed to pay the amount. Thereafter, the accused snatched his mobile phone and his bike. Hence, the present case.

4. Mr.N.Balasubramanian, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 22.04.2025. He therefore prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr.S.S.Manoj, learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that the stolen properties have been recovered from the petitioner herein. He further submits that if bail is granted to the petitioner, he will commit the similar offence again. Accordingly, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides and perused the records.

7. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 22.04.2025. In view of the offences allegedly committed by the petitioner, and taking note of the fact that the stolen properties have been recovered from the petitioner herein, this Court is of the opinion that further custody of the petitioner is not necessary for the Investigating Agency in this case. Further, the petitioner has permanent residence, and hence, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same, and also considering the period of incarceration, and with a view to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to certain conditions. Accordingly, bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
