2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was standing near the de facto complainant's vehicle which was parked in front of the de facto complainant's home. The de facto complainant asked for a cause to stand near his vehicle to the petitioner. In reply, the petitioner attacked the de facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submits that the injured sustained only simple injury and he was discharged from the hospital on 26.04.2025 and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case that the injured person was also discharged from the hospital and the nature of injury is simple and there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
