2. The case of the prosecution is that on 16.04.2025, while the de facto complainant closed the railway gate, the petitioner and other accused questioned her by using un-parliamentary words. Thereafter, the petitioner and other accused attacked the de facto complainant and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submits that it is a case of case in counter. The injured sustained only simple injury and was discharged from the hospital on 18.04.2025 and there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case that the injured person was also discharged from the hospital and the nature of injury is simple and there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
