respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 341, 352, 294(b), 323 and 506(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 in Crime No.186 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that it is a case in counter. Due to family dispute between the petitioner and the de facto complainant, the petitioner attacked the de facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submits that the injured sustained only simple injury and he was discharged from the hospital and there is one previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case that it is a case in counter, the injured person was also discharged from the hospital and the nature of injury is simple, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate,
