Crime No.168 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused told the defacto complainant that two ladies are available in a house and asked him to come there and flirt with them on payment. While going there, the defacto complainant came to know that the accused persons were running prostitution at that house. The defacto complainant left from the house stating that he would withdraw amount and come back. Thereafter, the case has been registered as against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that he has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence. A1 was enlarged on bail in Cr.M.P.No.1473 of 2025 by the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge. He seeks this Court to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.) appearing for the respondent on instruction would submit that the offence has to be treated as a crime against the society. The investigation is still pending. He objects to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that A1 was already enlarged on bail by the trial Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Trichy, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the
