CRL OP(MD), No.8523 of 2025

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 420 and 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.10 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had received a sum of Rs.25,50,000/- from the defacto complainant by way of cheque and cash for the sale of land in favour of the defacto complainant. Further, the petitioners have not sold the land to the defacto complainant and have not returned the money. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. The learned counsel for the defacto complainant/Intervenor submitted that the petitioners had cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, he strongly opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is no previous case against the petitioners and if the petitioners are directed to deposit some amount to the credit of crime number, and the same would suffice to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sivagangai, on condition that each of the
