Mr.K.Gnanasekaran,
Govt. Advocate (Crl. Side) for R5.

ORDER

The learned counsel for the petitioner states that pursuant to the petitioner's application for conducting survey, the officials have fixed the date as 10.05.2025 for conducting survey. The petitioner apprehends that the neighbouring land owners may object while conducting the survey. Hence, he seeks the assistance of the fifth respondent.

W.P(MD)No.14049 of 2025

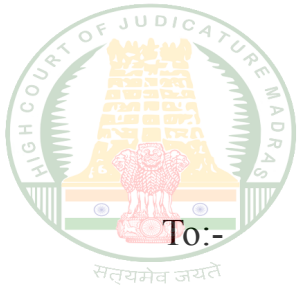

2. In the light of the above, the second respondent shall consider the objections of the adjoining land owners before conducting survey. If the second respondent apprehends any breach of peace, it shall be open to the second respondent to seek the assistance of fifth respondent to ensure that there is no breach of peace at the time of conducting survey. Enquiry shall be conducted within a period of two weeks from 10.05.2025. The survey application of the petitioner shall be disposed of within a period of four weeks thereafter. If the objections of the third parties are not touching the issues of title pertaining the subject survey survey number over which the petitioner claims right, then it is open to the second respondent to proceed to conduct survey by rejecting the objections of the third parties' objections. If objections are touching the issues of title relating to the subject survey numbers, then the second respondent shall be entitled to refuse to conduct survey and parties shall be relegated to the competent Civil Court.

3. This writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
