2. The case of the prosecution is that on 25.03.2025 at about 10.00 PM, the petitioners had wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant and subsequently, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent person and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He therefore prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are close relatives and they have partition dispute. The petitioners 1 to 3 are mother, son and daughter respectively. The petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with Aruval and the defacto complainant was injured in cheeks, eyes and head. The injury resulted in eight stitches and then the defacto complainant was discharged from the hospital. A counter case was also filed in No.98 of 2025. The petitioners have no previous cases against them.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioners do not have any previous case, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail with certain conditions.
