Crime No.206 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that a restriction was imposed on the petitioners' factory from manufacturing crackers. However, on 23.04.2025, when the defacto complainant conducted an inspection of the said factory, it was operational with several employees. On seeing the Officers, the employees fled from the premises. Hence, the respondent police registered a case against the petitioners.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and no such occurrence as alleged by the prosecution, has been taken place.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.) appearing for the respondent on instruction would submit that the petitioners are running factory without any licence. The properties involved in the case has already been seized. He objects to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the fact that the properties involved in this case were seized by the respondent police, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Srivilliputhur, Virudhunagar District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme
