2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's husband has obtained loan from the petitioner. The defacto complainant's husband had left her. Thereafter, the petitioner has approached the defacto complainant's father and demanded the loan amount. On 07.01.2023, the petitioner came to the defacto complainant's house and shouted the defacto complainant in filthy language and also demanded exorbitant interest for his debt and threatened to the defacto complainant. Hence, the respondent police registered a case against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.) appearing for the respondent on instruction would submit that there are two previous cases of similar nature pending as against the petitioner. The investigation is almost completed. He objects to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and considering the nature of dispute between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Melur, Madurai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
