2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.03.2025 at about 01.00 PM, when the petitioner was working in GS Infra Tech Company as diesel distributor, he had stolen 260 liters of diesel from the defacto complainant's company. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, therefore, prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner is the operator and the petitioner's work is to fill up fuel in lorries, four wheelers and two wheelers. The petitioner had sold 260 liters of diesel illegally to third party. Further, the petitioner has no previous case against him.

5. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the address of the petitioner is wrongly mentioned and he has also filed a memo to that effect. The said memo is recorded and the Registry is directed to carry out necessary amendments wherever necessary.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the petitioner has no previous case against him, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail with certain conditions.
