The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 5 r/w 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act, in Crime No.19 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police have apprehended the accused A1 & A2 and 2 lottery tickets were recovered from them. Further, A1, A2 received the printed form of lottery tickets from this petitioner. Hence, the petitioner was implicated in this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that A1 & A2 had already been released on bail. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that co-accused had already been released on bail. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that co-accused had already been released on bail and most of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner,
