2.The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner came to the hotel of the defacto complainant and due to quarrel, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language, attacked him with chair and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Aravakurichi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Fifteen Thousand Rupees only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends
