2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner erected illegal electric fencing line in his land. The deceased came into the way and touched the electrical field and died due to electrocution. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. Further, he would submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl side) would submit that the petitioner has absconded and he is not cooperating for investigation. Hence he would strongly oppose to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner was absconded and he is not cooperating for investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
